COLOR the Feelings

Christmas Edition

Session Objective:

*Students will identify feeling words and physical expressions of feelings.

Materials:

- *Pencils
- *Crayons
- *Color the Feeling handouts

Guiding Questions:

- *What are some similarities with how we express our feelings?
- *What are some differences with how we express our feelings?

Session Details (about 30 minutes)

*Say "Everyone experiences feelings, sometimes those feelings are expressed differently, some people get red in the face when angry, some cry when sad, some scream when scared, some jump for joy. It's important to identify how our feelings look because the more we understand our emotions the more we can control them." Pass out the handouts. Let's start by going through each feeling one by one. The first is sadness which means feeling unhappy or upset. A common way to express sadness is a frown or crying. Let's go through the handouts to find out how you express sadness. We also need to think about how we can overcome sadness, some ways are...(read handout). Are there any that you would add to this list? Let's think of words that also mean sad, or synonyms, and words that mean the opposite of sad, antonyms. (Review accompanying handouts). Repeat this for all 5 feelings. Then go to the color the feelings pages with all the feelings. Have them complete it using the color code at the top of the page. Once complete, Say "now we are going to identify how certain situations would make us feel, each of us might have unique answers and there is no right or wrong answer because we may have different feelings about things." The next page is color by code, identify the feeling word and color it the assigned color.

ASCA Standards Alignment:

- *Mindset: Belief in development of whole self, including a healthy balance of mental, social/emotional and physical well-being. (M 1)
- *Behavior: Social Skills: Use effective oral and written communication skills and listening skills (B-SS 1)

SEL Competencies:

- *Self-awareness: identifying emotions, accurate self-perception.
