General Google Slides Directions:

- 1. Please click on the links provided.
- 2. Please sign in with your Google account.
- 3. Please click "make a copy" and a copy of the resource will automatically be saved to your Google Drive.
- 4. If you are using Google Classroom, please assign the resources to your students.
- 5. If you are not using Google Classroom, you can post the resources to the virtual platform that you are using, or email the links directly to students. If you email the links to students, please make sure that they or their parents have a free Google account first. They will click on the link, sign in with their Google account, and then a copy of the resource will automatically be saved to their Google Drive. They can then use any device (tablet, smart phone, computer) to access the resource.
- 6. For the journal, please make sure that you are using it in "edit mode," not in "presentation" mode.

How to Use the Digital Stories:

There are a total of 13 digital stories included in this resource, all in Google Slides. There is a K-2nd grade version and a 3rd-5th grade version of each story provided (except for the loss of pet story which is K-5th grade). The K-2nd grade stories use a farm animal theme and the 3rd – 5th grade stories use human characters. The stories cover loss of mom, dad, grandma, grandpa, friend, sibling, and pet so please choose the story that applies to the child's loss and their age level. I recommend reading the appropriate story first to the student then using the digital journal. There are several discussion questions for the stories included at the end of the journal.

How to Use the Digital Journals:

1. Two digital journals (one that corresponds with the K-2nd grade "Bessie" stories and one that corresponds with the 3rd-5th "Bryan" stories) are included. These digital journals help students process their loss and are intended to be used after reading the digital story that corresponds with their loss experience. There are multiple editable text boxes in the journals that say "type here." Students can type directly in the text boxes. There are also a few drag-and-drop activities where students can click on (or touch) and drag a circle or emoji to express their feelings or thoughts.
