General Google Slides Directions:

1. Please sign in with your Google account.
2. Please click "make a copy" and a copy of the valentines will automatically be saved to your Google Drive.
3. If you are using Google Classroom, please assign the activity to your students.
4. If you are not using Google Classroom, you can post the resource to the virtual platform that you are using, or email the link directly to students. If you email the link to students, please make sure that they or their parents have a free Google account first. They will click on the link, sign in with their Google account, and then a copy of the resource will automatically be saved to their Google Drive. They can then use any device (tablet, smart phone, computer) to access the resource.
5. To use the text boxes in the valentines, please make sure that you are in "edit mode," not in "presentation" full-screen mode.

How to Use the Activity:

Please make sure students are using the presentation in "edit" mode (NOT in full-screen "presentation" mode) or the text boxes will not work!

These digital Kindness valentines were designed to spread love, joy, friendship, and cheer among your classroom, school community, and/or faculty!

Two posters and full-page valentine cards are included.

Many options for adorable clipart are provided!

6 options for sentence starters are included:

- You are special to me because...
- I am thankful for you because...
- You brighten my day when you...
- You are a good friend because...
- My favorite thing about you is...
- When I think of you, I think of...

A printable version of the valentines is also included in the zip folder.
