DIRECTIONS:

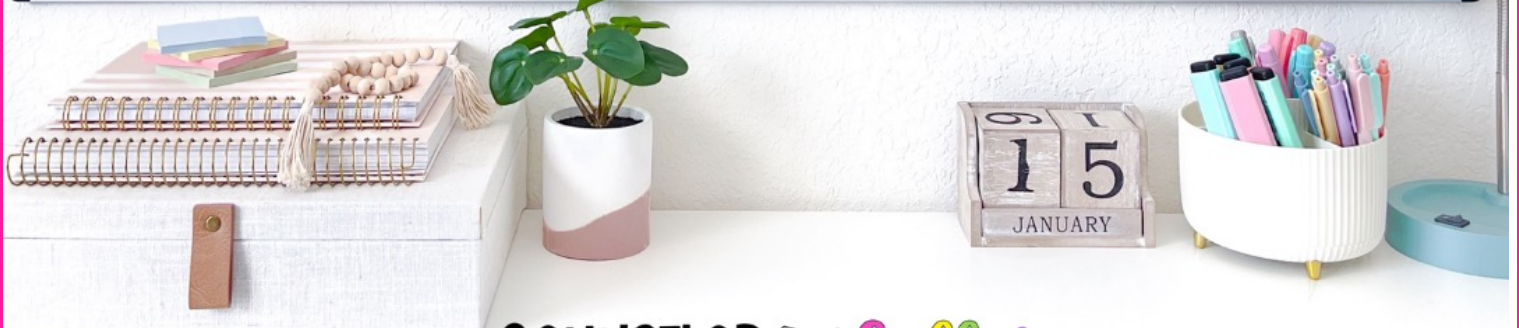

This bulletin board is a beautiful way to celebrate NSCW, educate others on our role, and advocate for our profession! All of the printable materials that you'll need are included. Please only print the pages that you need. You can arrange the board however you'd like, but a sample is included on the next page as a guide for you!

IMPORTANT NOTE: We included 3 different size options for the clipart image of the counselor hugging her students. We included a 1-page option, a 2-page option, and a 4-page option. Please choose the one that best fits the size of your board. The 1-page option is the smallest. The 2-page option is the middle-size, and requires the image being pieced together. The 4-page option is the largest, and also requires it being pieced together.

If you have a paid version of Adobe Acrobat or a poster maker at your school, you could also print the image as a poster to make it even larger!

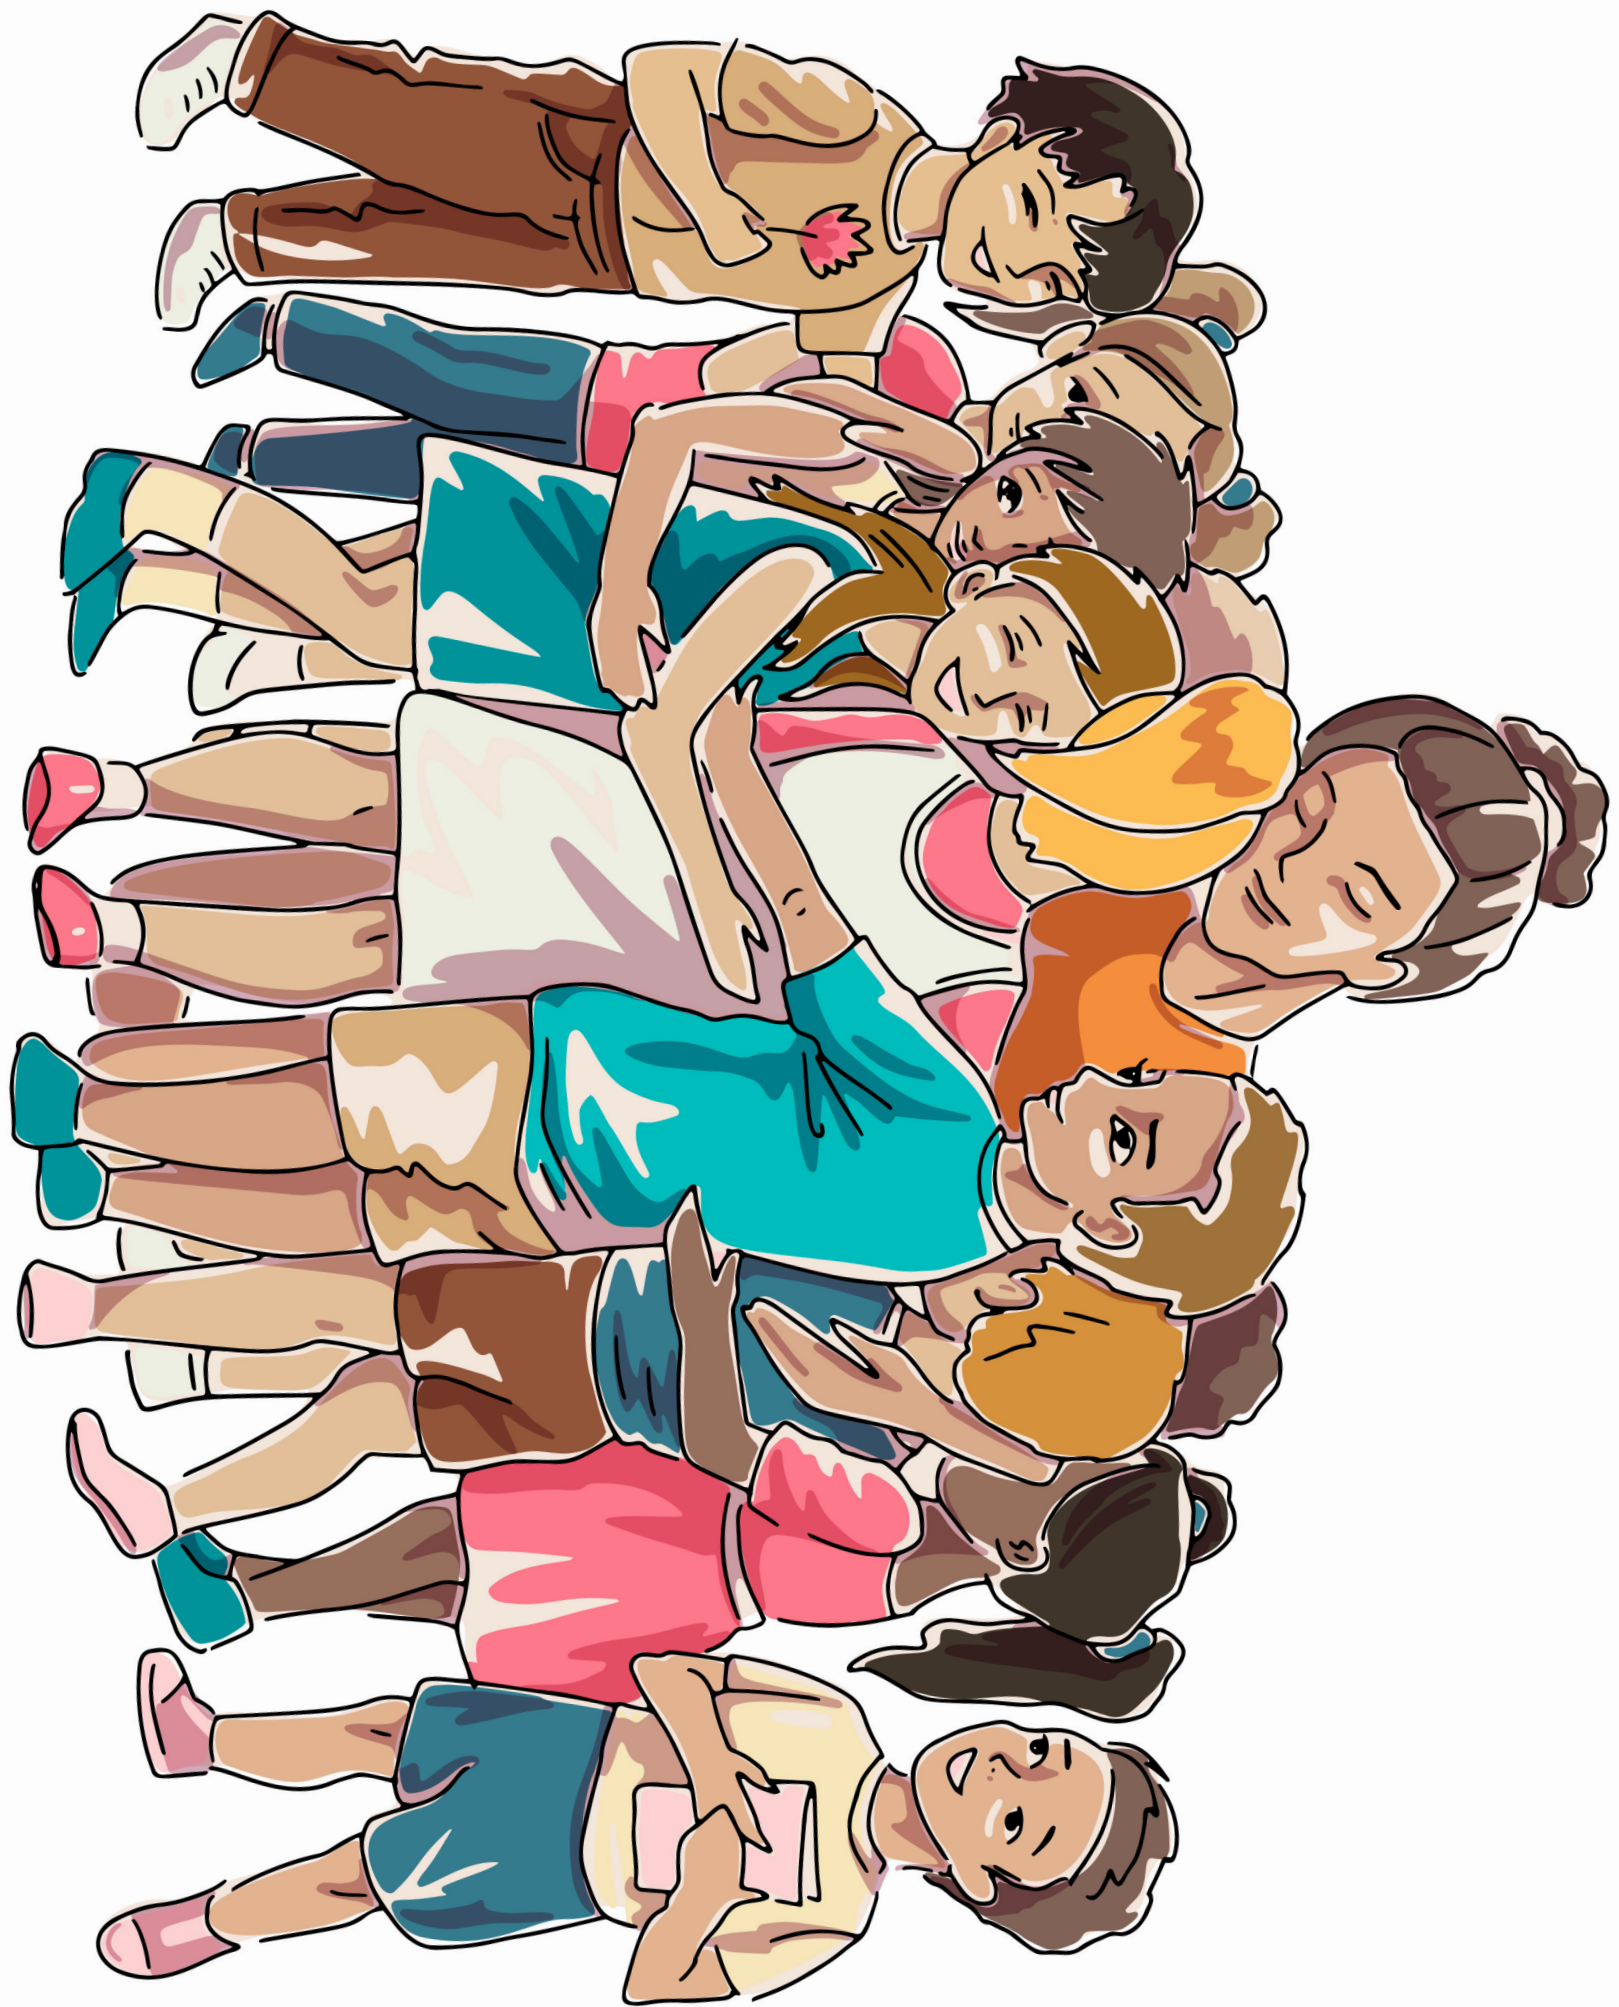

A matching poster, worksheet, and coloring page are also included for you. A word search is also provided!
