General Google Slides Directions:

- 1. Please sign in with your Google account.
- 2. Please click "make a copy" and a copy of the activity will automatically be saved to your Google Drive.
- 3. If you are using Google Classroom, please assign the activity to your students.
- 4. If you do not use Google Classroom, you can post the resource to the virtual platform that you are using, or email the link directly to students. If you email the link to students, please make sure that they or their parents have a free Google account first. They will click on the link, sign in with their Google account, and then a copy of the activity will automatically be saved to their Google Drive. They can then use any device (tablet, smart phone, computer) to access the resource.
- 5. If you'd like to use the resource in-person with students on a smart board, you can use your own Google account to access it.

How to Use the Digital Activity:

PLEASE USE THIS ACTIVITY IN "EDIT MODE",
NOT IN FULL-SCREEN "PRESENTATION MODE"

1. Please start by reading the story "The Invisible Boy" by Trudy Ludwig aloud (or sharing a YouTube read aloud video of the story).
2. Next, please review the digital for Google Slides™ presentation. Students will reflect on the story and explore inclusion and kindness in the presentation.
3. To share their feelings, students can drag-and-drop the feelings faces to the frames.
4. Students can type directly in the text boxes that say, "type here."
5. If you'd like to close the lesson with printable worksheets or coloring pages, they are included in the zip folder!
6. Questions or suggestions? Please contact me at laura@musiccitycounselor.com. 😊
7. PS I so appreciate when you please leave a review on my resources on my TpT store. It earns you credits towards future purchases, helps other educators find quality resources, and helps my small business grow!
