General Google Slides Directions:

- 1. Please sign in with your Google account.
- 2. Please click "make a copy" and a copy of the activity will automatically be saved to your Google Drive.
- 3. If you are using Google Classroom, please assign the activity as an assignment to your students.
- 4. If you are not using Google Classroom, you can post the resource to the virtual platform that you are using, or email the link directly to students. If you email the link to students, please make sure that they or their parents have a free Google account first. They will click on the link, sign in with their Google account, and then a copy of the activity will automatically be saved to their Google Drive. They can then use any device (tablet, smart phone, computer) to access the resource.
- 5. For the activity, please make sure that you are using it in "edit mode," not in "presentation" full screen mode.

How to Use the Digital Activity:

1. This activity was designed to be part of a Child Abuse Prevention/Erin's Law lesson. It teaches students the difference between safe and unsafe secrets. When there is a text box that says "type here," students can type their answer directly in the box. Included is a sorting game with 20 scenarios to help children understand the difference between safe and unsafe secrets. To play, please read the scenario, then drag the blue X to the "safe secret" box if it shows a safe secret, or to the "unsafe secret" box if it shows an unsafe secret. Please read the text aloud to emerging readers.
2. Questions? Please contact me at laura@musiccitycounselor.com.
3. PS I so appreciate when you please leave feedback on my resources. It helps other educators find quality resources and helps my small business grow! 😊
