Snowman Apologies Presentation Directions:

- This presentation teaches students the 3-step method to making a genuine apology. Just like it takes 3 snowballs to build a snowman, it takes 3 steps to apologize.
 - First, students learn why we apologize. Then, they learn the 3-step method. Next, 5 examples for practice are included. Students can read the scenario and then type their apology directly into the text boxes that say, "Type here."
 - At the end of the presentation, a reflection question is included that asks students how they can use this method in their life. Students can type directly in the text box that that says, "Type here."
 - A PowerPoint, posters, interactive activity, and worksheets are included in the zip folder.
