Empathy Lesson Directions:

- This presentation teaches students all about empathy.
- Students learn the definitions of empathy and perspective-taking. Then, they learn 3 reasons why empathy is important. Next, there are 8 scenario examples that ask students to put themselves in another child's shoes and imagine how they would feel in that situation. Students can type directly in the text boxes that say, "Type here."
- The presentation closes with a discussion question. Students can type directly in the text box that says, "Type here."
- A PowerPoint version of this presentation as well as printable materials are also included in the zip folder.
