DIRECTIONS:

This lesson is a companion to the story "Jabari Jumps" by Gaia Cornwall. It focuses on teaching students about courage and growth mindset. To start, please read the story aloud to students or provide a YouTube video read-aloud. Next, please teach either the PowerPoint or the Google Slides presentation to students. The PowerPoint is intended for in-person learning and the Google Slides was designed for either distance learning or in-person learning on an interactive device (i.e. iPad, smart board, etc.). After the presentation, you can choose any of the printable activities to use with your students. Instructional posters, worksheets, and coloring pages are all included for a variety of ages and ability levels!

Here is a video that your students may like about the "Power of Yet:"

GROWTH MINDSET

FIXED MINDSET

This is too hard...
I give up!

I just can't do it! I'll never be as good as him.

Why should I try if I'll fail anyway?

I don't want to be wrong or make any mistakes.

This is good enough, even if it isn't my best.

I'll never get it right.

I'm not as smart as she is. I'll never achieve what she can.

I'll just stick to what I'm comfortable with.
