General Google Slides Directions:

- 1. Please sign in with your Google account.
- 2. Please click "make a copy" and a copy of the activity will automatically be saved to your Google Drive.
- 3. If you are using Google Classroom, please assign the activity as an assignment to your students.
- 4. If you are not using Google Classroom, you can post the resource to the virtual platform that you are using, or email the link directly to students. If you email the link to students, please make sure that they or their parents have a free Google account first. They will click on the link, sign in with their Google account, and then a copy of the activity will automatically be saved to their Google Drive. They can then use any device (tablet, smart phone, computer) to access the resource.
- 5. For the activity, please make sure that you are using it in "edit mode," not in "presentation" full screen mode.

How to Use the Digital Activity:

- This workbook teaches students about middle school life and helps them feel more comfortable, confident, and ready for the big transition.
- Some pages are purely instructional for students to read and discuss.
- Some pages have text boxes that say "Type here." Students can type their answers directly in those text boxes!
- Some pages ask students to circle or check their responses. They can click on the black circles and yellow check marks, then drag them over their answers.
- One page has a YouTube video for students to watch (that is embedded for them).
- One page has a fun word search! To mark the words that they find, students can go to "Insert" → "Line" → "Scribble!"
- Questions? Please contact me at laura@musiccitycounselor.com. I'm here to help!
