General Google Slides Directions:

1. Please sign in with your Google account.
2. Please click "make a copy" and a copy of the lesson will automatically be saved to your Google Drive.
3. If you are using Google Classroom, please assign the activity as an assignment to your students.
4. If you are not using Google Classroom, you can post the resource to the virtual platform that you are using, or email the link directly to students. If you email the link to students, please make sure that they or their parents have a free Google account first. They will click on the link, sign in with their Google account, and then a copy of the lesson will automatically be saved to their Google Drive. They can then use any device (tablet, smart phone, computer) to access the resource.
5. To use the interactive features of the lesson, please make sure that you are in "edit mode," not in "presentation" full-screen mode.

How to Use the Activity:

Please make sure students are using the presentation in "edit" mode (NOT in full-screen "presentation" mode) or the interactive slides will not work!

- I wanted the first slide of the presentation to represent you. Please find the slide that most looks like and press the "delete" button on your keyboard to delete the rest!
- Please customize the "My School Psychologist" and "My School Psychologist's Favorites" pages. To insert your own photo, please click on my photo, go to "Insert," "Image," "Upload from my computer" and select the image that you want. You can also type in the text boxes to teach your students about you!
- Students can drag the checkmarks and circles to mark their responses. They can also type in any text boxes that say "Type here."
- Printable activities are also included in the zip folder that you can use to supplement or close the lesson if you'd like!
- Questions? Please contact me at laura@musiccitycounselor.com. I'm here to help!
- PS I so appreciate when you please take a moment to leave feedback on my resources. It earns you credits towards future purchases, helps other educators find quality resources, and helps my small business grow! 😊
