ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Hello educator friends!

I'm Laura. I am a passionate school counselor and student advocate. I have been a public-school educator for over 25 years. I've spent time as;

- A first-grade teacher
- A second-grade teacher
- An elementary school counselor
- A high school counselor
- A middle school counselor
- 2023 New Jersey School Counselor of the Year

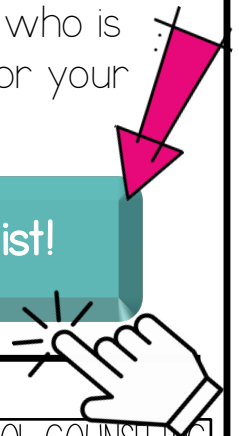

In the various roles I've held in education, I remain steadfast in my belief that every child can learn. I advocate for student needs and work hard at making sure my work is collaborative with teachers, fellow counselors and parents! I love facilitating classroom lessons and group counseling. I've held leadership roles in my local and state counseling associations and am always looking for new and exciting challenges in counseling and education. I pour hours of work and research into my resources so that you can save time. I'm a dedicated mom and wife who is always happy and excited to bring you new, fun, easy to use content for your educational spaces.
