General Google Slides Directions:

- 1. Please sign in with your Google account.
- 2. Please click "make a copy" and a copy of the activity will automatically be saved to your Google Drive.
- 3. If you are using Google Classroom, please assign the activity to your students.
- 4. If you are not using Google Classroom, you can post the resource to the virtual platform that you are using, email the link directly to students, or use the presentation in-person on your device.
- 5. If you email the link to students, please make sure that they or their parents have a free Google account first. They will click on the link, sign in with their Google account, and then a copy of the activity will automatically be saved to their Google Drive. They can then use any device (tablet, smart phone, computer) to access the resource.

How to Use the Digital Activity:

IMPORTANT NOTE: PLEASE USE THIS ACTIVITY IN "EDIT MODE," NOT IN FULL-SCREEN "PRESENTATION MODE."

- 1. This interactive activity introduces students to the world of higher education! It teaches critical college vocabulary, asks them to reflect on what they already know about college, and to think about their future college dreams! Several fillable text boxes are included that say "Type here" that students can use to type in their response to the provided prompts. At the end of the presentation, students can use the draggable black circle to show what type of college they may like to attend and what major they may like to study.
- 2. A PowerPoint and printable resources are included in the zip folder, too!
- 3. Questions? Please contact me at laura@musiccitycounselor.com.
- 4. PS I so appreciate when you please leave feedback on my resources. It helps other educators find quality resources and helps my small business grow!
