<https://docs.google.com/presentation/d/1P9FILJcgH0ZPaf3eLJk0m2aLKwv2cGvs566t8hIrdpA/copy>

General Google Slides Directions:

1. Please sign in with your Google account.
2. Please click "make a copy" and a copy of the lesson will automatically save to your Google Drive.
3. If you are distance learning and using Google Classroom, please assign the activity to your students.
4. If you are distance learning with another platform, you can use post the resource to the virtual learning program that you are using, or email the link directly to students. If you email the link to students, please make sure that they or their parents have a free Google account first. They will click on the link, sign in with their Google account, and then a copy of the activity will automatically be saved to their Google Drive. They can then use any device (tablet, smart phone, computer) to access the resource.
5. If you would like to use the digital lesson in-person with students, you can access it from the students' Google account (so that their work saves to their account). You can use it on a smart board, computer, or tablet.

Please make sure that you are using the presentation in "edit mode," not in "presentation" full screen mode.

Digital Lesson Directions:

- This presentation reviews the story "One," teaches about the 4 types of bullying, and empowers students to be an upstander.
- Before using this presentation, please read aloud the story "One" by Kathryn Otoshi (or use a video read-aloud on YouTube).
- Some of the presentation slides are purely instructional for students to read and reflect on.
- Other slides include interactive features:
  - For the drag and drop activities, students can click on (or touch) the check mark and drag it to their answer choice(s).
  - Any time that students see a text box with "Type here," they can type their responses directly in the text box.
- Printable worksheets and posters are also included in the zip folder. Feel free to use them after the presentation!
